ATTN: Paul SHANOSKI, Senior Attorney

Sir:

Applicants/Petitioners have reviewed the Decision on Petition Under 37 C.F.R. § 1.181(A) to withdraw the holding of abandonment mailed November 2, 2006, and hereby request reconsideration based on the following:

In the November 2, 2006 Decision, the examiner indicates that the Petitioner has not complied with 37 C.F.R. § 1.8(b)(3) in that it does not appear that the Petitioner has first hand knowledge of the previous transmission. As stated in the Decision:

"The original was submitted by one Richard Trecartin, and the renewed Petition was submitted one Jeffery Bernhardt. The previous transmission contains a certificate of facsimile transmission which was executed by one Wendy Wilson, and a cover letter which was signed by one Renee Kosslak, and it does not appear that the statement from either of these two individuals were provided with this renewed Petition."

U.S. Serial No.: 09/472,662
Filing Date: December 27, 1999

In response, the undersigned is the same Richard Trecartin identified in the Decision.

Jeffery Bernhardt is an associate who prepared and signed the renewed Petition under my supervision and direction.

Renee Kosslak was an associate, who under my supervision and direction, prepared and signed the "cover letter" identified in the Decision.

Wendy Wilson was my secretary at the time she signed the certificate of facsimile transmission of the "cover letter."

Renee Kosslak is no longer associated with the firm and Wendy Wilson is on a leave of absence.

Under the circumstances, I can attest upon personal knowledge of those matters performed by me and upon information and belief for those matters performed under my supervision and direction by others.

In response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed January 2, 2002, I instructed Renee Kosslak to prepare and file a Response to Office Action which was sent via facsimile transmission on January 14, 2002 (the "cover letter"). The cover letter was submitted in response to the office action mailed January 2, 2002 which indicated that Page 4 of the Response mailed October 4, 2001 was missing. The cover letter included the October 4, 2001 Response and was sent by my then secretary, Wendy Wilson, via facsimile on January 14, 2002.

It is submitted that the information contained herein should be sufficient for the Petition to be granted.
